GREELEY AND THE TRIBUNE.

"The South-Its Sins and Its Sufferings

In a speech in New Orleans, the other day, Mr. Greeley, of the New York Tribune, proclaimed that the true policy of the country was univer sal suffrage and universal amnesty. A few days ago an editorial appeared in the Tribune most vigorously assailing the character of the adventurers and charlatans that had become the ruling power in the Southern States. Paris a Veritable Hell--- The Strug-Neither the editor or correspondents of that paper, in their journeying through the South, have encounter the famous Ku-Klux Klan, and all have reached the conclusion of General Sperman, that if the military was withdrawn there are enough good and true men in the South to check all outrages, from whatever source they outrages, from whatever source they may come, and to maintain law and to-day say the executions continue.

ty in that unfortunate part of the Union. It is a melancholy picture that they draw for us. The most intelligent and influential, the educated, the really useful men of the South, deprived of all political power, have come to lock upon themselves as the outraged subjects of a despotic conqueror. Taxed and swindled by a lock of results for the speedy coup d'etat in the Assembly to depose Thiers and invite Count de Chambord to the throne of France.

PARIS, May 31.—Several cases of claims on the Government for tax on scrip dividend in the New York Central railroad are still pending in the Internal Revenue Bureau, and the decision of yesterday will be considered as precedent in the settlement of them all.
